Israeli Tech Leader Hillel Fuld Inspires Hillel Academy Middle School Students

Hillel Academy's Wuligar Middle School recently hosted Hillel Fuld, a renowned Israeli entrepreneur and content creator, for an engaging and inspiring discussion with Middle School students.

Fuld, who has collaborated with global powerhouses such as Google, Oracle, Microsoft, and Nike, captivated students with insights into entrepreneurship, social media, and the evolving world of technology. Speaking in the Middle School Mercaz, he shared personal experiences from his journey in the tech industry, offering valuable lessons on innovation, resilience, and the impact of digital platforms.

"Our students were energized by Hillel Fuld's passion and knowledge," said Julie Begani. "His real-world experiences and advice provided them with a unique perspective on the opportunities that exist in the tech and entrepreneurial world."

Hillel Academy remains committed to bringing thought leaders and industry experts to inspire the next generation, ensuring students are prepared for a future of innovation and success.
